Below is an entry written by Deborah.

Read the first part of the entry carefully and choose the best answers for Questions 1-5.

Dear Diary,

Mum gave me a surprise lunch today! It was a very pleasant surprise.

As today is Tuesday, I have to stay back after school for my orchestra practice after lunch. As usual, Mum prepared a packed lunch for me.

This morning Mum told me to expect a special surprise for lunch when she handed me my packed lunch with a big smile. The lunch bag was heavier than usual. I was very excited and couldn't wait to tell Amy about it.

During lunchtime, I hurried to the covered playground with Amy. I quickly opened my packed lunch and took out the food inside one by one. "Funny", I thought when I pulled out an apple from the bag. I don't like apples, but Mum does. I prefer oranges.

Mum gave me a surprise lunch today! It was a very pleasant surprise.

Read the second part of the letter. Answer Questions 6-7.

The next thing I pulled out was garlic bread. Amy knows I don't like garlic bread. She told me to pull out the next thing. It turned out to be a tuna sandwich - my favourite! Amy was excited and said that my bag was a magic bag. She grabbed my bag and then 'spoke' to the bag, "I want a chocolate cake!" But she was sad to see that she took out prunes. "I don't like prunes either!" I said. Suddenly, I realized that the food I don't like are all mum's favourite!

My lunch surprise was answered when we heard a call from a distance, "Hi girls!" and was my mother walking into the covered playground laughing!
