

Name: _____ ()

Class: _____ Date: _____

(ANSWERS)

Stall decorations

You need:

- coloured paper or material
- glue
- string
- pens
- a stapler

Steps

- 1 First use sharp scissors to cut triangles from the paper or material.
- 2 Then fold the bottom of the triangles and unfold them again.
- 3 Next put the triangles in a line on a flat surface. Then lay a piece of string along the triangles.
- 4 After that fold the bottom of the triangles over the string. Leave 30 cm of string at each end. Staple the triangles with the string inside.
- 5 You can use glue to stick pictures onto the triangles or draw on them if you wish.
- 6 Finally hang the decorations on the stall.

Half an hour later Ann heard a noise coming from Alan's room. 'Help!' shouted Alan.

'What a mess!' cried Ann.

They tidied up together. It took a long time.

'How are your cookies?' asked Alan.

'Oh no!' said Ann. She raced to the kitchen. The cookies were hard and black.

'I'll help you make some more,' said Alan. 'Don't worry.'

At the school fair ...

'The cookies and decorations are great!' said Grandma.

'That's because we made them together!' said Alan.

Name: _____ ()

Class: _____ Date: _____

Post-reading

Write the answers and tick (✓).

1 Why did Alan need a stapler to make stall decorations?

He needed to staple the triangles (with the string inside).

2 Why did Ann's cookies become hard and black?

It was because they were in the oven for too long.

3 Which of the following is NOT one of the steps to make Grandma's cookies?

A. Add sugar to the softened butter.

B. Pour 2 tablespoons of milk into the mixture.

C. Put the chocolate bar into the oven.

D. Put the baking tray with the mixture into the oven.

4 Which sentence is true about the stall decorations? (You can tick more than one answer.)

A. They are colourful.

B. They are 30 cm long.

C. They are messy.

D. They can be hung on a stall.

5 What happened at the school fair?

A. Ann and Alan made cookies together.

B. Ann and Alan messed up their stall.

C. Ann and Alan sold hard black cookies.

D. Grandma loved the cookies and decorations Ann and Alan made.