3 Healthy eating ANSWERS

Reading

The three little pigs were late for school again.

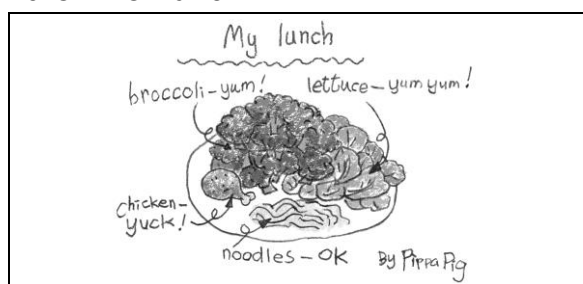

'We were hiding from the big bad wolf,' they said. 'We couldn't run away – we're not fit.'

'You need to eat healthy food,' said Mr Grunt. 'What did you eat for lunch?'

Peter Pig was good at Maths. He made a pie chart.

Pippa Pig was good at Art. She drew her lunch.

Paul Pig was good at English. He wrote a report.

My lunch

At lunchtime I ate a few vegetables – half a tomato, four peas and a baby carrot.
 I also ate a little fruit – two cherries and three grapes.

By Paul Pig

'Oh dear!' said Mr Grunt. He wrote a report and sent it to Mrs Pig.

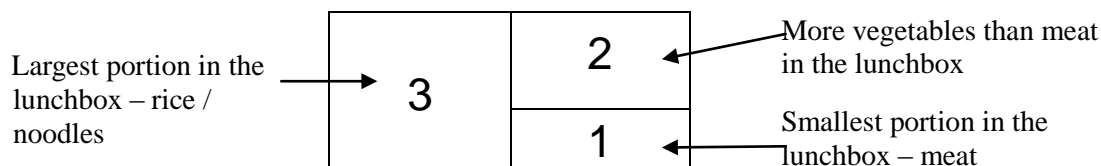

This report is to help the three little pigs eat healthier food.

Peter Pig is very fat. He eats a lot of meat. He needs to eat less meat. He only eats a little fruit. He needs to eat more fruit.

Paul Pig is very thin. He needs to eat more — of everything!

Pippa Pig is always tired. She only eats a lot of vegetables. She needs to eat more meat and more rice or noodles.

Please remember Smart Lunch '3 2 1'!

Mrs Pig read the report. 'What a good idea!' she thought.

Three months later the little pigs could run faster than the old wolf. They were not afraid of him anymore. You could say that the '3 2 1' rule saved the lives of the three pigs. Try '3 2 1' — it may save your life too!
