A Robbery in a Jewellery Shop

By Daisy Tam

Today at about two o'clock in the afternoon, two robbers broke into Jo Jo's Jewellery Shop in Long Ping Road in Yuen Long. Both of them carried guns. They took away some gold watches and jewellery. They cost nearly $1 million. There were two policemen came when the robbers were running out of the shop. The policemen arrested one of the robbers but the other one ran away. He ran along Long Wing Road and turned left into Long Tin Road.

Mr. Lee, who was waiting for a bus at Long Tin Road, saw one of the robbers. He said, 'When I was waiting for a bus at the bus stop, I saw a man running quickly to me. I was hit by him and I fell down. He then caught a taxi and went away.'

Mr. Lee said that the robber was wearing a black jacket and a pair of blue jeans. But he couldn't see his face clearly. No one was badly injured in the robbery. Mr. Lee was slightly hurt and was sent to the hospital.
