Emily is reading her favourite storybook-The Town Mouse and the Country Mouse.

Read the story and choose the correct answer.

Once upon a time, there lived a country mouse called Charlie. One 1 afternoon, he was sitting at his window. While he was listening to a blackbird singing, there was a knock at the door. It was his cousin, Tyler the Town Mouse.

Charlie was happy to see his cousin and gave him a bowl of nuts topped 5 with some strawberries for dinner. Tyler finished the food but he said, 'It's so tasteless!'

That evening they climbed the hill behind Charlie's house and saw the sunset. Tyler thought that the sunset was too slow. He didn't like it. That night, Tyler couldn't sleep. The countryside was too dark and quiet. 10

Next morning, when he saw that the breakfast was nuts and strawberries again, he decided to leave. He invited Charlie to go with him and enjoy the exciting life.

On the way, they met a big bird. The bird offered them a lift. It was a long journey. At last, they landed at a town market place. There were so 15 many people and so much noise. They ran quickly, along a gutter, across a pavement, up an iron staircase, over rooftops, down a chimney and through a window. At the end, they reached the kitchen of a big house.

Tyler lived there.
