- Narrator : John is listening to some announcements at his school. Listen carefully and answer Questions 1-5.
You have 30 seconds to study the questions. You may start now.
Listen carefully. The announcements will begin now.
- Ms Lee : Good morning, everyone! I'm here with Ben Wong, the chairperson of the Charity Club.
- Ben : Hello everyone.
- Ms Lee : Today, we're very excited to introduce all of you to our biggest event of the year, Charity Week.
- Ben : This year, there will be a new activity called 'Charity Sale' because our school always aims at helping the people in need. At the sale, there will be some handmade crafts, handmade cookies and second-hand toys for sale. The sale will be held daily at lunchtime during the week. All the money raised in the sale will be donated to Home of Hope. Also, here is a small reminder. Everyone should speak English at the sale!
- Ms Lee : That's a wonderful idea! Students can help others while they practise speaking English. The second activity of Charity Week is 'Charity Fun Day'. There will be games, lucky draws and talent shows by our students and local performers. While playing at the game booths, you can also learn about different charities and our society.
- Ben : Also, there will be free healthy snacks and drinks to enjoy. Isn't it interesting?
- Ms Lee : Exactly! You don't want to miss such a fun event! Besides the 'Charity Fun Day', this year we are having our first musical marathon.
- Ben : Really? That's awesome! We can enjoy musical performances by our schoolmates. When will it be held, Ms Lee?
- Ms Lee : It will be held on the last day of Charity Week. Students can play classical or pop music and there will even be a special guest performance. If you are interested in performing, fill in the application form on our school intranet and submit it by next Friday. All students are welcome!

- Ben : Yes. We can't wait to see you all in the activities!
- Narrator : Check your answers now.
Number One. Why will the 'Charity Sale' be held this year?
Number Two. In the 'Charity Sale', students can _____.

Part 2

- Narrator : John is listening to an interview between Jane Leung and Andy Chau. Listen carefully and answer Questions 6-10.
You have 30 seconds to study the questions. You may start now.
Listen carefully. The interview will begin now.
- Jane : Good evening, everyone. Welcome to the Late Night Talk Show. I'm Jane Leung. Tonight, we have a very special guest. Singer Andy Chau is here with us to talk about his latest CD album. Thank you very much, Andy.
- Andy : Thanks for having me.
- Jane : Everyone will agree that you are successful because you've had 18 number-one songs since you started your career. In your new album, most of the songs are about your own experiences. Can you tell us more about it?
- Andy : No problem. After my last album, I couldn't find any ideas to write my songs. I was stuck. So my producer suggested that I could tell the stories in my own life this time. Some may say it must be easy to talk about your life, but actually the most difficult part was coming up with the lyrics.
- Jane : Really? I must say your lyrics are the best! Andy, I heard that you are sponsoring poor children to learn music. Would you tell me the reason for doing so?
- Andy : Of course! As singers, we should sing well. But what's more important is to care about our society and make it a better place. There are many talented children out there who are looking for a chance to shine, but they just don't have the money to develop their skills.

- Jane : That's true! Not everyone has a chance to show the world their talents because of different reasons.
- Andy : Exactly!
- Jane : Thanks again Andy for stopping by. Next week, film star Adam Chan from Taiwan will share his story with us. If you want to find out what he likes about acting, join us next week!
- Narrator : Check your answers now.
Number Six. Jane Leung is the _____ of Late Night Talk Show.
Number Seven. Jane thinks Andy is successful because he _____.
Number Eight. Which of the following is TRUE about Andy?
Number Nine. Andy thinks that it is more important for a great singer to _____.
Number Ten. What is next week's show about?

- Narrator : John and his mum are at Pages Bookstore. He is helping his mum complete a customer survey form. Listen carefully and complete the form for John. You have 30 seconds to study the form. You may start now.
Listen carefully. The conversation will begin now.
- Mum : John, can you help me fill in this customer survey form, please?
- John : Sure, Mum. What should I write first?
- Mum : The first question is about how often we visit this store. We come here once a week, so I'd say 4 times a month.

- John : Really? You sometimes come here by yourself, Mum, don't you?
- Mum : Oh yes! Then, I think it should be 7-8 times every month.
- John : OK. Let me tick this box. Mum, what do you think about the service here?
- Mum : Every time we come in here, the storekeeper seldom greets us. But, he usually finds the books we need very quickly. So I think we should tick this box for their service.
- John : OK. How about the choices of books they sell here? Do you think they have enough books?
- Mum : I think the choices are wonderful. We can find everything we need here. The books here helped you a lot in your school project last month. Do you remember?
- John : You're right, Mum. I think their collections are amazing. I will put a tick here. How about the prices of the books?
- Mum : I think the prices are fair. Not too low but not high either.
- John : Alright now. How much do we spend here every month? $100?
- Mum : I think we spend more than that. Apart from books, we come here to buy stationery and magazines too. I'd say about $600.
- John : But, Mum, I remember you have a VIP card here. You can get discounts when you buy books.
- Mum : Oh, thanks for reminding me! With the VIP card, I think the amount should be $400 then.
- John : OK. Do you think there's anything they should improve?
- Mum : I think they can start an online store.
- John : Start an online store. That's a good suggestion! Let me write that down. We need to fill in some of your information on the bottom of this page. Mum, do you want to write down your occupation? It is optional.
- Mum : Why not? I'm fine with that. You can write down 'housewife'.
- John : OK. There. What's your e-mail address?
- Mum : My e-mail address is helen0611@gmail.com. That's H-E-L-E-N for Helen.
- John : Alright. Time to hand in the form.
- Narrator : This is the end of Section A. Please go on to Section B.

Section C

Suggested answer:

Today after school, Judy and I waited for the minibus to go home at the minibus stop.

While waiting for the minibus, I accidentally hit Judy's arm and her mobile phone dropped to the middle of the road. She was not angry. She just stepped out to pick up her phone. Suddenly, a minibus came at a high speed. Judy did not see it. I was shocked and did not know what to do. Some people behind us began to scream.

Luckily, a kind man grabbed her school bag and pulled her back. He saved Judy from an accident. We were so thankful to him!
