Mike met Tinky on his way to the park.

'Hi, Mike, did you have a good weekend?' asked Tinky.

'No, I didn't,' said Mike. 'It was boring. I stayed at home and didn't do anything. How about you? Where did you go?'

'I went to Yam O,' said Tinky.

'Where's that?' asked Mike.

'Look at this travel guide,' said Tinky.

About Sunny Bay

Before 2005, Sunny Bay was called Yam O. The old name meant 'dark bay' but it was a beautiful place. There were wood factories. People enjoyed hiking and fishing there. Now it is home to Disneyland and it is called Sunny Bay – a happy place with a happy name!

'Oh you mean Sunny Bay,' said Mike. 'Did you go to Disneyland?'

'No,' said Tinky. 'I went to Yam O — in 1985.'

'What?' asked Mike. 'You weren't born then.' He didn't understand.

'I flew there in my time machine,' said Tinky. 'There was no Disneyland in 1985.'

'No Disneyland!' said Mike. 'What did you do there?'

'I swam in the sea,' Tinky said. 'I took some photos and had a picnic. It was fantastic!'

'Wow!' said Mike. 'Can I use your time machine, please?'

'Sure,' said Tinky.

Tinky showed Mike the time machine. 'Choose the year and place here,' she said. 'Then press the red button.'

Mike smiled. 'Here goes,' he said ...
