Mary is writing a book report at home. Read the story and fill in the blanks with the correct words.

Once upon a time there was a crocodile. He lived in a river. Beside the river was a big grassland. The crocodile often met a hen when he was taking a rest on the grassland. The hen went to the grassland to find food. The crocodile wanted to eat the hen very much. He wanted to know how she tasted.

One day, the crocodile said to the hen, 'I want to eat you!' 'You can't eat me. We are of the same family,' shouted the hen. 'I don't understand!' said the crocodile. 'You must think carefully!' said the hen.

The crocodile thought for a long time but still he could not understand why. So he went to ask his friend, Piggy. 'Of course you are of the same family. Both of you come from egg,' said Piggy.
