	LEUNG SINC	3 TAK	SCHOOL
	P.5 English -Text t	ype wo	rksheet(Play 2)
Class: P.5	Name:() Date	:	Grade:
Ada is perfo	rming a drama with her fri	ends. R	ead the drama.
Characters:
	mary 5 student
	•
•	y : Primary 5 student y : Primary 5 student
	mary 5 student
	er : Miss Chan
Daniel Teach	C. · MIOS OTIGIT
Part 1
Narrator:	Summer is coming. The	children	are talking about what	to do.
Eric:	I want to learn *tae kw	on do. I	t's fun to smash with fe	eet and fists!
Macy	No, it's too violent for n	ne! I like	wearing beautiful *leo	tards.
	Let's take ballet lessons	togethe	er!
Eric:	Isn't ballet for girls only?
Ada:	No, you're wrong. Quite a number of boys do ballet too!
Tony:	Well I think I am too fat to do ballet.
Ada:	Don't worry. Doing ballet can help you get fit! I have learned ballet for a month. It he	elps me t	o get in shape.
1. This passa	ge is taken from a	 ·
A. poem		С.	diary
B. play		D.	recipe
2. Which of	the following sentence is T	RUE?
	Ballet is for girls only.
	All boys don't like doing ballet.
	Macy likes tae kwon do.
•	leed to use feet and fists i	n tae kw	on do
3. What does	s Ada think about doing bal	llet?
	violent.	С.	It helps her keep fit
B. Tony	is too fat to do ballet.	D.	It is beautiful.

Tae kwon do: 跆拳道 Leotards: (舞蹈、體操等穿的)緊身連衣褲

lesson. Miss Chan: Welcome. I'm your teacher, Miss Chan. How long have you practiced ballet, children? Macy: I'm new to ballet. So is my friend Eric, but Ada has learned it for a month already. Miss Chan: I see. I have learned ballet for twelve years. Ballet is really graceful! OK. First, stretch your legs. Eric: Can I try to stand on my toes? Ballet dancers usually do that! Miss Chan: Please don't. You should only do that when your feet are strong enough. Ada: Where is Tony? [Tony comes into the ballet room in his sportswear.]	Part 2
Miss Chan: Welcome. I'm your teacher, Miss Chan. How long have you practiced ballet, children? I'm new to ballet. So is my friend Eric, but Ada has learned it for a month already. Miss Chan: I see. I have learned ballet for twelve years. Ballet is really graceful! OK. First, stretch your legs. Eric: Can I try to stand on my toes? Ballet dancers usually do that! Miss Chan: Please don't. You should only do that when your feet are strong enough. Ada: Where is Tony? [Tony comes into the ballet room in his sportswear.]	Narrator:		The children take ballet lessons together. It is their first
Macy: I'm new to ballet. So is my friend Eric, but Ada has learned it for a month already. Miss Chan: I see. I have learned ballet for twelve years. Ballet is really graceful! OK. First, stretch your legs. Eric: Can I try to stand on my toes? Ballet dancers usually do that! Miss Chan: Please don't. You should only do that when your feet are strong enough. Ada: Where is Tony? [Tony comes into the ballet room in his sportswear.]			lesson.
Macy: I'm new to ballet. So is my friend Eric, but Ada has learned it for a month already. Miss Chan: I see. I have learned ballet for twelve years. Ballet is really graceful! OK. First, stretch your legs. Eric: Can I try to stand on my toes? Ballet dancers usually do that! Miss Chan: Please don't. You should only do that when your feet are strong enough. Ada: Where is Tony? [Tony comes into the ballet room in his sportswear.]	Miss Chan:
a month already. Miss Chan: I see. I have learned ballet for twelve years. Ballet is really graceful! OK. First, stretch your legs. Eric: Can I try to stand on my toes? Ballet dancers usually do that! Please don't. You should only do that when your feet are strong enough. Ada: Where is Tony? [Tony comes into the ballet room in his sportswear.]			•
Miss Chan: I see. I have learned ballet for twelve years. Ballet is really graceful! OK. First, stretch your legs. Eric: Can I try to stand on my toes? Ballet dancers usually do that! Please don't. You should only do that when your feet are strong enough. Ada: Where is Tony? [Tony comes into the ballet room in his sportswear.]	Macy:		•	r graceful! OK. First, stretch your legs. Eric: Can I try to stand on my toes? Ballet dancers usually do that! Miss Chan: Please don't. You should only do that when your feet are strong enough. Ada: Where is Tony? [Tony comes into the ballet room in his sportswear.]			•
Eric: Can I try to stand on my toes? Ballet dancers usually do that! Miss Chan: Please don't. You should only do that when your feet are strong enough. Ada: Where is Tony? [Tony comes into the ballet room in his sportswear.]	Miss C	han:	·
Miss Chan: Please don't. You should only do that when your feet are strong enough. Ada: Where is Tony? [Tony comes into the ballet room in his sportswear.]	Г		• enough. Ada: Where is Tony? [Tony comes into the ballet room in his sportswear.]	_		·
Ada: Where is Tony? [Tony comes into the ballet room in his sportswear.]	1V(155 C	παπ.	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
[Tony comes into the ballet room in his sportswear.]	Ada:
	/ tau.		•
Tamen Canana Thu laka			[conf connect and content account in the open content of
Tony: Sorry, I'm late.	Tony:		Sorry, I'm late.
Miss Chan: Why are you still in your sportswear?	•		•
Tony: I'm sorry. I'm afraid Mum go the wrong size. It's too tight for	Tony:		· · · ·
me.			me.
[Everyone laughs.]			[Everyone laughs.]
4. 'Ballet is really graceful.' What is the meaning of 'graceful'?	4. 'Ball	et is rea	lly graceful.' What is the meaning of 'graceful'?
A. beautiful	A.	beautif	ul
B. terrible	В.	terrible
C. comfortable	С.	comfor	table
D. ugly	D.	ugly
5. Why doesn't Tony dress in his leotard?	•		•
A. He is a boy.			•
B. It does not fit him.
C. He is late.
D. He likes wearing sportswear.	D.	He likes	s wearing sportswear.
6. Which of the following child has learned ballet before?	6. Whi	ch of the	e following child has learned ballet before?
A. Macy
B. Eric		•
C. Ada				_
D. Tony						