Puzzle ONE

There were four doctors and four patients.
Doctor Black told his patient to go to the dentist.
Doctor Red's patient had a stomachache.
Doctor White told his patient to cover his mouth.
Alan told the doctor his arm hurt.
Mary had a toothache.
Sue didn't have a cough.
Alan saw Doctor Green.
Paul didn't see Doctor Red.
Which doctor did each patient see?

Puzzle TWO

A young boy and his father were going home by bus when there was an accident. The father hurt his back and the son broke his arm. An ambulance took them both to the hospital.

At the hospital they were put in two different rooms. Two doctors got ready to help them, one doctor for each patient. The doctor who was helping the father started right away. The doctor who was helping the young boy looked at him in surprise. 'This child is my son!' the doctor said.

How can this be true?
