Part 1

Narrator : Tina is talking to her dad about her mum's birthday. Listen carefully and answer Questions 1-5. You have 30 seconds to study the questions. You may start now. Listen carefully. The conversation will begin now.

Tina : Dad, what are we going to do for mum's birthday on Saturday?

Dad : That's a good question. Why don't we hold a party for her?

Tina : Great idea! We can make it a surprise party.

Dad : Yes, we can secretly invite all her friends and family to the party. It is sad that Auntie Pam is in hospital and can't come. But I think the rest of the family can come.

Tina : Mum is helping at the old people's home on Saturday, so we can get everything ready then. She'll come home and find everyone here.

Dad : She usually finishes at about 5 pm. We can invite everyone to come at 5 pm then.

Tina : But what if she comes home early?

Dad : Oh. Maybe we should tell her friend Carol. She helps at the old people's home too. Carol can make sure Mum stays until 5 pm.

Tina : We can invite her friends from the old people's home too. I'm sure they would love to come.

Dad : OK. I will call some taxis to pick them up after Mum leaves.

Tina : What shall we have at the party?

Dad : Um... We need a cake, some sandwiches and balloons.

Tina : And we need lots of presents too.

Dad : I am going to buy your mum a new handbag.

Tina : But Dad, she has lots of handbags already. Why don't you buy her something she doesn't have?

Dad : Oh. Well, what about a new scarf?

Tina : She has lots of those too.

Dad : Hmm. Do you have any ideas?

Tina : I think she would like a new mobile phone. Her old one keeps turning off and the screen is broken.

Dad : Really? I'll get her a new phone then. What about you? What will you give her?

Tina : I am going to get her a pair of earrings. We saw some in a shop in Central last week. She really liked them.

Narrator : Check your answers now.

Part 2

Narrator : Tina is listening to a radio programme about health. Listen carefully and answer Questions 6-10. You have 30 seconds to study the questions. You may start now. Listen carefully. The radio programme will begin now.

Presenter: Today we are talking about health. It is important to look after your body and your mind. There are many things you can do to be healthy.

The first thing is to make sure you are getting enough sleep. If you don't get enough sleep, you will be very tired. You will be able to study better and work better if you have enough sleep. You will also feel happier. Children should have about twelve hours of sleep every night. Teenagers need about ten hours of sleep. Adults need about eight hours of sleep. In Asia, people usually do not have enough sleep. We go to bed too late and wake up early. We need to make more time for sleep.

Another important thing to be healthy is to eat plenty of vegetables and fruit. They give us vitamins. Don't eat so much junk food or fatty foods. Too much sugar is not good for you either. If you eat a healthy diet, you will be giving your body what it needs. Don't eat big meals but don't eat too little. Drink plenty of water and don't forget to eat breakfast. That is the most important meal of the day.

Getting enough exercise is also important. It keeps you healthy and makes you feel good. People need to do thirty minutes of exercise three times a week. It is good to walk every day and do sports. If you are doing exercise, you are using up energy and helping your heart keep healthy. Why not walk to school or to work? Why not join a sports team or go to a gym? You can choose the sport or exercise that you like. You also need to have time to relax. Life can be busy. You need to make time to rest and relax. Maybe you like to listen to music, or to spend time with your family playing games or chatting. Maybe you can spend time with a pet or take a hot bath. There are many different ways to relax.

Narrator : Check your answers now.
 Number Six. How long should children sleep every night?
 Number Seven. Which of the following can give you vitamins?
 Number Eight. To be healthy, we should NOT _____. *
 Number Nine. Which of the following is TRUE about exercising?
 Number Ten. According to the radio programme, which is NOT a way to relax?
 This is the end of Part 2. Please go on to Part 3.

Part 3

Narrator : Tina is talking to a police officer. Listen carefully and complete the police report below. You have 30 seconds to study the form. You may start now.
 Listen carefully. The conversation will begin now.

Police Officer : OK. Tina, I need to get some more details from you. Can you give me your surname?

Tina : It's Lo. My full name is T-I-N-A L-O. Tina Lo.

Police Officer : Thank you. And now I need your address. Do you live in Wan Chai?

Tina : No. I'm just here for a swimming lesson. I live at Flat 6C, number 10 High Street.

Police Officer : Flat 6C, number 10, High Street. That's on Hong Kong Island.

Tina : Yes, I live on Hong Kong Island.

Police Officer : Thank you. Can I have your telephone number?

Tina : Well I don't have a mobile phone. But I can give you my mum's number. Her mobile number is 6188 3092.

Police Officer : Let me see if I have got this right. That's six-one-double eight, three-zero-nine-two. OK... We'll call your mum if we find your purse.

Tina : I hope you can find it. It has my money and my Octopus card in it.

Police Officer : Do you have any money to get home?

Tina : No, I don't. It was all in my purse. The thief must have taken it from my bag when I was swimming. I had a swimming lesson.

Police Officer : I'll give you some money to get a bus home.

Tina : Oh thank you! I was worried about how I was going to get home.

Police Officer : No problem. Was anything else taken?

Tina : No, I still have my bag, my pencil case and my watch.

Police Officer : And what time was your swimming lesson?

Tina : I was in the pool from about 11 am to 12 noon.

Police Officer : So the thief stole your purse between 11 am and 12 noon. So your lesson lasts for an hour?

Tina : That's right. I go every Saturday morning.

Narrator : This is the end of Section A. Please go on to Section B.

Reading and Writing

Section C

Suggested answer:

36. Subject: A Careless Mistake

Today I made a mistake at the airport. After the plane landed, I was waiting for my luggage at the Baggage Reclaim Hall. There was a girl next to me. My friend came and we talked. After a while, I picked up my luggage and left with my friend.

When I opened my luggage at home, I was shocked to find that I picked up the wrong one. I immediately called the airport and they said a girl just called them for help. Then I met the girl to exchange the luggage.

Hope to hear from you soon!
