- 18 Narrator : Carrie is talking with her friend about magazines. Listen carefully and answer Questions 6-10. You have 30 seconds to study the questions. You may start now. Listen carefully. The conversation will begin now.
- Wilson : Hi, Carrie, what magazine are you reading?
- Carrie : Hi, Wilson, I'm reading HK Teens. Do you like it?
- Wilson : Oh, not really. There're too many advertisements in it. The film reviews are quite good but other sections are just fair.
- Carrie : You may be right, but I still like it. HK Teens only costs $18 and the stories are really good. I'm reading one of them now. It's about a boy who saves some elderly villagers from a fire in Tai O. He races into their homes to save them. Luckily, no one dies in the fire.
- Wilson : That's a good story! The stories in the magazine Nine Dragons are good too. It not only has good stories about Hong Kong people, but also some funny stories from other countries. They're all written by the creative writer Denis Wong.
- Carrie : Oh yes, he writes good stories. But I think Brad Wang is better. He writes for the magazine Beauty.
- Wilson : Isn't that a magazine for girls? I haven't read that one.
- Carrie : It's mainly for girls but the articles and stories can be enjoyed by anyone. It's a bit expensive though. It costs $38.
- Wilson : That's too much money to spend on a magazine. Do you buy it?
- Carrie : No, my aunt buys it for me. I am lucky as she buys it for me every month when it comes out. It's my favourite magazine. If my aunt didn't buy it for me, I wouldn't buy it myself. You're right, it's too expensive.
- Wilson : What about Open Mind? I love that magazine. It's only $25. It has cartoons and lots of educational articles. I once entered one of their competitions and I won film tickets.
- Carrie : Wow! I like these competitions. I also like quizzes and puzzles in the magazines. Both Beauty and HK Teens have lots of quizzes. I enjoy doing them on the bus to school.
- Wilson : I usually do my homework on the school bus. But on the way home I sometimes read Nine Dragons or Open Mind. After dinner, I sometimes join the competitions of the magazines online.
- Carrie : I don't have time to read magazines in the evening as I play sports and have music practice.
- Wilson : I mainly do my music practise and play basketball at weekends. I have to go now. See you later!

 Milo : Well, I have $600 pocket money per month but I save some of it. I also give some to an animal charity. I guess I spend about $400 a month on shopping. Yes, around that amount.
 Carrie : Wow, you are lucky. I get $300 a month for my pocket money. What do you usually buy?
 Milo : I used to just buy computer games but now I am interested in reading so I buy books. I also like watching films so I buy DVDs of my favourite films. That means books and DVDs are what I buy.
 Carrie : Great, I will write that down. Now there is just one more question. When do you usually go shopping? For example, after school?
 Milo : Well, I have lots of activities and much homework to do in the evenings so I don't go shopping on weekdays. I normally go shopping on Saturday afternoon. I shop at other times too, but Saturday afternoon is when I always have free time to shop.
 Carrie : Thanks, I will write that down. That's all for now. Thanks so much, Milo.
 Milo : No problem. By the way, I want to invite you to my birthday party next month.
 Carrie : Thanks, I would love to come!

Last week, my mum asked me to do some shopping for her. She gave me her that I will buy all the things purse and a list of things to buy. I promised her.

First, I went to the market. I went to a vegetable stall and bought some carrots and tomatoes. Next, I went to the supermarket to buy a bag of washing powder. When I got home, Mum asked me where her purse was. I could not find it so I ran back to the supermarket. I was very nervous.

In the end, the manager of the supermarket found the purse, and gave it back to me. I learnt that I should be more careful.
