- Narrator : Max is listening to a conversation about a singing competition. Listen carefully and answer Questions 1-5. You have 30 seconds to study the questions. You may start now.
Listen carefully. The conversation will begin now.
- Mary : Hi, Henry. Are you entering the singing competition?
- Henry : What singing competition, Mary? I haven't heard about it.
- Mary : It was announced during the assembly on Tuesday.
- Henry : I was away on a school trip on Tuesday so I missed the assembly.
- Mary : Oh, well, Miss Lo said that next week there would be a singing competition. It will be on Friday afternoon. You should definitely enter it.
- Henry : Do you really think so? I like to sing but I don't know if I'm good enough. You're better.
- Mary : It is kind of you to say so. Hey, I have an idea. Why don't we enter it together? We could form a group!

- Henry : Brilliant idea! What categories are there? Individual and group only?
- Mary : No, there are four categories: individual and group singing, and individual and group singing with musical instruments. You play the guitar, don't you? We could enter the final category.
- Henry : Yes, but I'm only in grade 4. Maybe we should just enter the group singing?
- Mary : Group singing then. What song shall we sing?
- Henry : Can we sing a K-pop song? Do we have to sing in English or can we sing in other languages?
- Mary : Miss Lo didn't say. I think we could do anything we want. I like K-pop too but how about a Canto-pop song, a traditional Chinese song or an English song?
- Henry : Hmm. We can decide it later. We need to plan and, of course, practise. Do you know who the judges will be?
- Mary : There will be only one judge. Canto-pop singer Gillian Liu has agreed to judge the competition. She used to go to our school so she agreed to come back and judge. I'm really excited that she'll be there.
- Henry : Me too. Wow, Gillian Liu. I hope I can get her autograph. We don't have much time to practise before next Friday. How about the lessons on Friday afternoon? I have Science during that period.
- Mary : Oh, Miss Lo said lessons will be cancelled so that we can all go to the competition. That means the whole school will be in the hall.

- Narrator : Max is listening to a radio programme for students. Listen carefully and answer Questions 6-10. You have 30 seconds to study the questions. You may start now.
Listen carefully. The radio programme will begin now.

Danny : Hi, listeners. I'm Danny Ho. You're listening to Radio Youth HK. Today we are accepting questions and feedback from students about starting secondary school. With me today is 18-year-old Lily Yip, who has just gained a place at the University of Hong Kong to study a law degree. Welcome, Lily.

Lily : Thanks Danny. Hi everyone. I'm really happy to be here to share my experience of secondary school and answer questions.

Danny : We are very happy to have you here, Lily. Our first question comes from Hugo, aged 10, who has e-mailed us to ask this question. He is concerned about homework. How much homework will he get at secondary school? Is it really hard to do? Can you help Hugo, Lily?

Lily : Sure. Well Hugo, Hong Kong students get lots of homework in primary school too. So when they go to secondary school, they should be used to working hard. Don't worry. Just make sure you make time to do the homework every day. Don't panic. You can do it.

Danny : That's a piece of good advice, Lily. I hope it will help Hugo. Now, we've also had a fax with advice from a student called Arthur. Arthur writes that students should join after-school activities. He says they will enjoy school life more if they do so. It is because they can make more friends, do something they enjoy and have a more balanced life. He also says that the best thing he has done is to join the badminton club. He is in the school team. He loves playing matches against other schools and making friends while having fun. Do you agree about after-school activities, Lily?

Lily : Definitely. Being part of a team or club is really good. I was a member of the Chess Club and the choir. I had a great time.

Danny : Thank you, Lily. Now we have a caller for you. Hello, you're on Radio Youth HK. Who am I talking to?

Joey : Hi, Danny. I'm Joey. I'm in Primary 6. I would like to ask Lily how she felt on her first day of secondary school? Was she nervous?

Lily : Hi, Joey. Thank you for your question. Yes, I was nervous, but my mum told me that everyone would feel the same. She told me to smile, be friendly and have fun. Does that help?

Joey : Yes, thank you.

Lily : Thank you for your question and good luck with starting secondary school.

Danny : Yes, good luck Joey. Now, just to remind our listeners that although we can no longer take e-mails or faxes on this topic today, we are still taking calls. Just dial 9773 7339 to ask Lily a question. Our lines are open until 6 pm, before the show ends.

Narrator : Check your answers now.

Section C

Suggested answer:

Subject: A Frightening Visit

Hi Jane,

How are you? I had a frightening day yesterday.

Yesterday Tim and I visited the Art Museum. There was an Ancient Egypt Exhibition. Tim wanted to go to the toilet. I was eager for the exhibition so I went in first.

Inside the exhibition, I saw a mummy inside a coffin and I took a photograph of it. The security guard told me not to take photographs. I said 'Sorry' and then I went away. Suddenly, a mummy walked towards me. I was so scared and screamed loudly! He was alive and then started to laugh. He was actually Tim! He wrapped himself in toilet paper to trick me. He was really naughty!

Best,

Max
