

An Accident

Today is Sunday. Ken is talking with his friends in the park. Many people go there to do some exercises. Everyone is happy.

A boy named Luke is flying a kite. He steps back and back. He is very near the pond but he doesn't know. He is very happy.

Suddenly, Ken and his friends hear a sound of splash! They look around and find out that Luke has just fallen into the pond! They are very worried. Luke can't swim so he is very scared.

In the end, Ken jumps into the pond and saves Luke. Luke is safe now but Ken is wet! 'Thank you so much!' Luke says. Ken smiles and goes home happily. 'Oh! What happened to you?' Mum asks. 'It's a long story!' Ken says. What a day!
