A Silly Thief

Last night, a silly thief broke into my home. He climbed into my house through the window when everyone was sound sleeping.

As quicky as a flash, the burglar stole some money and jewellery. However, the chubby and stocky burglar made some noise when he was looking for valuables.

Suddenly, my dad heard the noise and woke up. He went into the living room and turned on the light when the burglar was about to leave. The burglar was as very scared and climbed out of the window at once! There was an old bike outside the window. The burglar rode on the bike and tried to escape. Unluckily, he was too clumsy and fell off from the bike. 'Ouch!' cried the silly thief. At this moment, Dad called 999.

In the end, the police arrived in 5 minutes and arrested the silly burglar. He was taken to the police station. I have learnt a lesson that we shouldn't steal anything. We must also close the windows before we go to sleep. What an unforgettable experience!
