

Going to a Circus

By Cheung Yuet Yee Yuri

Cindy liked animals. One day, her parents got some tickets for a circus so they went there.

First they saw three clowns playing some tricks with the balls. They were excited. Cindy took out her camera to take some photos with them. They enjoyed the show.

Next two elephants jumped out and started dancing. They were funny. After that a trainer whistled and some bears walking on the balls. It was a wonderful show. They yelled loudly.

During the show, a bear suddenly growled but the trainer did not notice it. The audience screamed. Cindy and her family sweated nervously. Then the trainer gave some food to the bear and it became happy again. It was just a part of the show! Cindy and her parents had a pleasant time.

What a breathtaking experience!