

"Yummy" Food from The Street Hawker

One day, Lucy got a very good result in her exam so her mum gave her a treat. When Lucy got the money, she felt out of blue.

Then she went out to a street. On the way, she saw a street hawker who was selling curry fish balls. She liked them very much so she used the money to buy the curry fish balls to eat. She enjoyed them right away.

After Lucy finished eating the fish balls, she went home. However, she started to feel that there was something wrong in her stomach which was really painful. She was suffering from it. Lucy's mother noticed that her daughter had a terrible stomachache and she was really sick, so Mum called an ambulance immediately and sent Lucy to the hospital.

After the treatment in the hospital, Lucy felt much better. The doctor told her to rest for a day and drink more water. In the end, Lucy was sorry that she didn't listen to her mum's advice. She bought some dirty food from a street hawker. She learnt that she shouldn't buy food from street hawkers again.
