School Picnic

Johnny and his classmates, Ben, Tim and Sue, go on a school picnic by bus. The weather is hot and sunny. On the bus, Johnny enjoys the scenery through the bus window. Ben and Sue are singing and clapping hands. Tim listens to music. They feel delighted.

In the park, they take out a mat and put it under the tree. Ben takes off his shoes. Then, he sits on the mat and eats a sandwich. Johnny and Sue play ball games and they feel very happy.

Next, they walk around the park. They see many kinds of butterflies there. Then Ben uses a net to catch a butterfly. Tim says to Ben, 'Even though the butterflies are beautiful, we should not catch them.'

In the end, Ben feels sorry and says, 'I will not do it again.' Then Tim says, 'We can take photos of the beautiful butterflies.' What an excellent trip!
