

School Picnic

Johnny and his classmates are on the bus. Today is Friday. It is hot and sunny. They are going on a school picnic. They feel happy.

First Johnny and his classmates play ball games in the country park. Then they feel hungry. They eat some food and drink. They eat sandwiches and sausages and they drink apple juice. After that, some of Johnny's classmates go to catch butterflies. Johnny feels angry. He points to a sign and says to his classmates 'Don't catch butterflies!'

In the end they say sorry to Johnny. They go back home. It is a good picnic.
