Island Surprise

Derek and his brother, David wanted to look for treasure on an island. It was sunny so they set off for the island. They set off with only a pair of binoculars and a map. They were all looking forward to finding the treasure.

Suddenly, there was a terrible storm. Heavy rain and thunder began to fall at the same time and the strong wind pushed waves against Derek and David's boat, causing it to capsize. The binoculars and the map also accidentally dropped into the sea. Derek and David were scared.

Then the ferocious waves overturned the boat, causing both Derek and David to fall into the sea. Fortunately, they both could swim so they hurried to a nearby island.

After arriving the island, Derek and David found some fruit on the trees. After they had eaten the fruit, they used some stones to which they picked to form 'SOS'. Luckily, a passing helicopter found the distress signal and landed and rescued Derek and David. They both returned home safely. They learnt that they shouldn't go on adventures without an adult.
