

An unforgettable Day

6A Gina Poon (8)

During the summer holiday, Tom went to the nearby swimming pool. Something unbelievable happened there, which might have caused him to find his future job.

It was the second day of the summer holiday. Tom was extremely bored in the house. Seeing other kids running outside made him wanted to do some outdoor activities too. Just then, he got an idea. He decided to go to the swimming pool. Tom went to his bedroom and prepared his swimwear before going swimming. He packed a T-shirt, a towel, a pair of swimming trunks and a pair of goggles. After that, he walked to the public pool.

It was not that crowded so Tom had plenty of space to swim. There were two women chatting next to the swimming pool and a young girl was playing around the edge of the pool, which seemed rather dangerous. Nevertheless, he went ahead to swim. When he was walking carefully, he tried to avoid all the water puddles.

All of sudden, there was a huge 'splash'. The girl who was playing, fell in the pool, obviously she couldn't swim! She kept shouting and yelling but her cries of help were ignored as no one was brave to catch her. There weren't any lifeguards during that time and the girl's life was on the line.

Just then, another 'splash' could be heard. Everyone looked around to see. Tom jumped in the water! He swam with all his might, as soon as he reached the girl. Tom wrapped his arm around the girl's waist and pulled her safely ashore. After a while, the lifeguards came back. They contacted the girl's parents and praised Tom for his bravery and confidence. They even joked he could be a lifeguard in the future.

