

School Picnic

Johnny and his classmates have a school picnic. Today is Friday. It is hot and sunny. Johnny and his classmates are on the bus. They want to go to the park. They feel happy.

First they play ball games. Then they are hungry. They eat some food.

After that some of Johnny's classmates go to catch butterflies.

Johnny is angry. He points to a sign and says, 'Don't catch butterflies!'

In the end the classmates apologize. Johnny forgives them. They are all very happy. It is a wonderful day.
