

My New Pet

Yesterday was my tenth birthday. I was very excited to open my gift. I teared apart the wrapping paper. And found a rabbit in a small cage that looked like a lovely house.

I named my new rabbit - Luna. She looked hungry so I fed her some carrots and a bowl of water. She loved to run around and to play with me and my parents. Suddenly, I received a phone call from one of my friends. She wanted me to come and have a picnic with her. She also brought her dog with her and I brought Luna too.

When I arrived at the park. I saw her sitting under a tree with her dog. I walked to her and said hi. We ate some food and chatted for a while. Suddenly, my friend's dog started barking and it bit Luna. My pet got hurt. She apologized and advised me to go home.

At home, I put a plaster on her to stop the bleeding and eased the pain. I took her to rest in bed. I have learnt I should keep an eye on my pets. What a sad day!
