I went to Marine Park with my parents yesterday. When we arrived, we went to the Sea Theatre to watch a dolphin show. I felt anxious when the host taking out a ring that was on fire. The dolphin was as brave as a lion. I was amazed by the tricks.

Then I stood up to clap for the brave dolphin. However, I didn't realize that my wallet has fallen out of my pocket. I thought the show was amazing and the dolphin was talented. At that time, I still didn't know my wallet fell out.

After the show, we went to the souvenir shop because I wanted to buy some gifts for my cousins. When we wanted to pay at the cashier counter, I couldn't find my wallet. I felt embarrassed because I was holding the line.

In the end, I went to the lobby to get help from the staff. They suggested me to try to find my wallet at the Lost and Found counter. I told the lady at the counter what my wallet looked like. Soon, she found it. I felt great.

I have learnt that I should be more careful with my belongings. It was an unforgettable day !
